68 Patrick St, Stawell

Patrick Street Family Home

This well positioned, handsome home in a prime Patrick Street location makes a lot of sense for a young family looking to live in an established neighbourhood close to primary and secondary schools.

Includes built in robes in all three double bedrooms and the year round comfort of gas central heating and evaporative air conditioning throughout. A bright and well laid out kitchen and meals area with excellent bench and cupboard space, spacious and comfortable separate lounge room plus a very handy smaller family room at the rear of the house. Two inside toilets are always handy and as well as a separate shower recess in the bathroom there is a separate full size bath for you to relax in at your leisure.

Outside offers a single carport with remote roller door plus a double garage with workshop, a secure private lush yard with pergola perfect for entertaining and family activities.
