1 Wimmera St, Stawell

That winning feeling

Admired for good reason, this magnificently situated residence has been fastidiously maintained and offers the new owners a comfortable and established family home with some well-hidden surprises.

Casual and formal living spaces, outdoor entertaining, superb gardens and great shedding combine to ensure many years of enjoying all that is on offer.

With full house air conditioning we start with an impressive lounge room with gas heating, views from the bay window and direct access to the private patio, formal private dining area, all electric kitchen with all the extras, heaps of cupboards and pantry, casual dining and family area. Spa bath and separate shower recess in the family bathroom, main bedroom with views, bay window, ensuite and a walk-in robe, bedrooms two and three are both doubles with built-in robes and overhead fans.

Parking abounds with a double carport in front of the double lock up garage with two automatic roll a doors and secure access into the house, while hidden away at the rear of the block is a seven by eight metre shed and workshop on a slab with power, toilet and workbench.

Your personal inspection is most welcome and highly recommended.
