Come prepared

Expect a lot but come prepared for more, those unexpected extras, special touches and quality finishes that take this home from the ordinary to the extraordinary. Then the position, what an ever changing and impressive outlook to the Grampians and the Black Ranges!

A beautifully designed and fully equipped kitchen adjoins the light filled and air conditioned family room and dining space with postcard views. Separate lounge room which is private and relaxing, air conditioned main bedroom boasting a walk-in robe and stunning ensuite, full wall of built-in robes to bedrooms two and three and an equally stunning family bathroom. By the way, that often forgotten laundry is impressive to say the least. All bedrooms feature external roller shutters, which provide security and total blackout of sunlight.

Wander the private well established gardens and find both intimate and expansive outdoor areas able to cater for all occasions. Eventually the very serious thirteen and a half by seven and a half metre garage, shed and workshop with double automatic roll a doors and rear street access, complete this unique home.
