

64 Wakeham St, Stawell

Bargain Hunters Dream

Here you have size, style and situation at an affordable price, in an older style period home that has loads of potential.

Enter across the cast iron lace fringed front verandah and find three generous double bedrooms including one with a walk-in robe (potential ensuite?), separate dining room, central hallway, massive six by three and a half metre lounge with gas heating and air conditioning, large country kitchen with an electric stove and combustion heater. Shower over the full bath in the tastic heated bathroom, two toilets, enclosed back porch perfect for the relocation of the external laundry.

The full size block has front and rear access, double carport, excellent fencing and sundry shedding. The home has been re-wired and re-spouted, is aluminium clad with some aluminium windows, has a rainwater tank and is north facing.
