19 Shirreff St, Stawell

New Shirreff in town

Beautifully presented with very little work required this solid 3 Bedroom period home would make an ideal first home or investment.

The property has undergone a recent makeover with some painting inside and out but most impressive is the fully renovated bathroom with separate shower and freestanding bath, toilet and vanity. Neat and tidy the kitchen includes good bench space, gas stove, double sink and a spacious meals area with a picturesque view over the town. The lounge has gas heating and reverse cycle split system. Other notable features include the front bull nose verandah with lace fretwork, 12 foot ceilings, stained glass internal door and polished floorboards throughout.

Located on a small manageable block the property has good fencing, small garden shed and a single garage. Situated in an excellent residential area this property should appeal to a number of buyers.
