

30 William St, Stawell

A home to be proud of

In this modern and well established home all the lucky new owners will need to do is unpack and relax in this beautiful, spacious and luxurious residence.

Do this while enjoying premium tarriff savings provided by 5kw of solar power.

Completely comfortable with full house central heating and cooling, you'll enjoy the formal feel of the long lounge and dining room looking out the bay window to a rural setting. For a more casual feel, the tiled Mediterranean inspired family room opens to the paved, covered and weather protected outdoor living that adjoins the beautifully equipped kitchen.

Private and enticing, the main bedroom has brilliant storage solutions with walk in and built in robes, as well as a spacious ensuite. Three additional bedrooms all feature built in robes and the main bathroom incorporates the luxury of a relaxing spa bath in tiled surrounds.

A double garage with an electric roll-a-door and direct access to the home has plenty of storage for cars and a workshop.

Tastefully decorated throughout with lovely, private and well established gardens, this home represents excellent value for money and your inspection is highly recommended.
