Feels Like Home To Me

Quietly enjoying a mid-size block with both front and side access in an excellent residential area close to primary school and day-care you will feel right at home here from the moment you walk inside. Well maintained and comfortable throughout the floorplan includes a generous lounge room with gas heating and a reverse cycle split system air-conditioner, upgraded kitchen and family meal space with good cupboard and bench space, dishwasher, gas cooking and a walk in pantry. All three double bedrooms have built-in robes and overhead fans, the tiled bathroom has also been renovated with a separate shower recess, tastic and vanity, internal and external toilets, external laundry and a handy small sunroom. Add a very easy care garden, bbq area, garden shed, carport and good fencing and this lovely home becomes a very tempting proposition.
