What To Do?

This home has seen better days, but a renovation would revive this cute cottage to its former glory. Boasting space, plenty of style and a very central location this home could be the project you've been looking for. The layout offers an open living area, combining a lounge room with open fireplace and air-conditioning, opening to the spacious dining area with gas heating. The kitchen has a double sink, dishwasher, fully laminated cupboards and a gas stove. All three bedrooms are doubles, with the main having polished floorboards and a bay window. The bathroom has cork tiles and is pine lined with a shower over a full size bath. For those that feel there is too much work to do the block size is 1168m² making it an ideal development site for units or home (STCA). The property is currently let for $140 per week.
