

22-28 Berry St, Stawell

Turn dreams into reality

Are you craving a bit of extra space but don't want to be too far from schools, work, recreation and other services that Stawell has to offer – well this is for you. Approximately 2.5 acres and located on the edge of the Ironbark State Forest but only minutes from the town centre. The block would make an excellent home site (STCA) creating a country lifestyle feel that dreams are made of. The property is zoned low density residential, has two street frontages, situated in a peaceful setting and has services close by.
