9 Byrne St, Stawell

So Close To Everything

Enjoy the benefits of this handy central location and mid-sized easy care block giving you more time to do all the things you really love.

A low maintenance air conditioned home with generous room sizes, private outdoor areas and a very handy garage/workshop this is an appealing real estate combination on an easy access corner block.

The two living areas include a large separate gas heated lounge room in addition to a gas heated family room with an economical combustion heater opening onto the paved and covered outdoor entertaining area. The all gas kitchen adjoins the family room with delightful views of the ranges and mountains an added bonus.

Of the three double bedrooms two have built-in robes, the tiled bathroom includes a full bath, separate shower recess and a tastic, and there is a linen press and laundry with built-in storage.

Externally a private front patio, screened carport, rain water tank, good fencing and extensive paving completes the property.
