35 Barnes St, Stawell

So Good, Even Jimmy Would Like It.

House proud owners and so they should be, what a delightful home, spotlessly presented and full of light and style.

On a centrally located quarter acre block handy to 502 primary school, day-care and the shops the clever garden design gives you the space and privacy to enjoy outdoor living.

Inside is so inviting, reverse cycle split system air conditioning and combustion heating in the comfortable lounge, a bright and fully equipped all electric kitchen with excellent cupboard space, three bedrooms in total with walk in robes to the two doubles and a single or handy office with a built-in robe. The stylish tiled bathroom and adjoining laundry equal the high standard set throughout the home.

Appealing extras include workshop, electrical rewiring, built-in storage/linen press, insulation, excellent fencing and fresh paintwork.
