7 Houston St, Stawell

Fabulous Federation

Continually cared for and very stylish this period residence is perfectly positioned in a popular residential location handy to primary school, day-care, shopping, parks and sporting facilities.

Retaining many of the classic Federation features including leadlight doors and windows, high ceilings, entrance hall, and plaster highlights this fully air conditioned home is in excellent condition throughout with generous rooms and delightful gardens.

The gas heated kitchen and family meals space is charming and has been cleverly developed to suit modern living while respecting the heritage. Includes gas and electric cooking, dishwasher, huge walk-in pantry and good bench space. The spacious lounge has both gas and combustion heating plus charming garden views.

The large main bedroom has easy access to the bathroom and all three bedrooms are carpeted doubles with built-in robes and overhead fans.

Fully tiled and recently upgraded the bathroom has a separate walk-in shower, full bath, tastic and a custom vanity, the toilet is separate and the tiled laundry has built-in storage.

An unexpected surprise is the detached, and very handy, art/hobby room or guest room. Add together the established gardens, front verandah, double garden shed with power, excellent fencing, shade sail over the paved outdoor sitting area and a carport at the end of the brick paved driveway and this home presents as a very desirable package. Come and look soon.
