65 Ligar St, Stawell

Lovely Living In Ligar

We are absolutely delighted to offer a large, well-kept and solid four bedroom family home on a full size Ligar St block with front and rear access, very rare in this current market and we suggest you look as soon as possible.

With desirable features like a spacious gas heated and air conditioned, carpeted north facing lounge, adjoining generous dining space and an upgraded kitchen with heaps of cupboards and bench space, island bench, dishwasher and gas/electric cooking. The family room at the rear of the home opens directly onto the ten by four metre covered timber deck with views over the town to the mountains.

Three of the four double bedrooms have built-in robes, the tiled bathroom has a separate shower recess and tastic and there are two internal toilets.

Extras include solar panels, security system, very handy fully made rear access, seven by four metre workshop with power and a single garage also with power.
