18 Lilian St, Stawell

A Home To Be Proud Of

A classic triple fronted brick veneer on a full size, thousand square metre block with dual access in an excellent residential area but just wait till you see inside.

Brilliantly renovated to highlight the space and livability of this wonderful fully climate controlled family home. Full of natural light the glowing polished floorboards greet you at the front door as you enter the lounge room that flows seamlessly into the delightful, fully equipped gas and electric kitchen and meals area. The servery from the kitchen overlooks the children's activity room that opens onto the large rear timber deck and back yard play space with its elevated cubby house.

Enjoy the luxury of four double bedrooms, two with walk-in robes and a gas heater in the main. The bathroom has a huge double bath with shower over while the modern laundry has built-in storage.

The main shed is nine by six metres with power, heater and evaporative air conditioning on slab and the second five by three metre shed is also on a slab.
