53 Wakeham Street, Stawell

FULL OF SURPRISES

With lots of street appeal just wait till you get inside and see some of the extras that come with this delightful and affordable family home.

There is a very comfortable gas heated lounge room with reverse cycle air conditioning plus a very spacious rumpus room perfect for all your families' activities. The central kitchen and family meals area has been upgraded with fully laminated cupboards, separate electric oven and hotplates, range hood, double sink, walk-in pantry and new vinyl. Bedrooms total three all with built-in robes, one and two are doubles and the third is a double plus. The bathroom has the shower over a full size bath, the toilet is separate and the laundry has just been remodelled. Other notable features are the colourbond roof, replaced spouting, roof insulation, front verandah, sundry sheds, double carport and a very handy central location.
